

MARTHA AARONS MASTER CLASS

TUESDAY APRIL 10, 2012

4 PM TO 8 PM

@THE CROWDEN SCHOOL

The Crowden School
1475 Rose Street
Berkeley CA 94702

Martha Aarons' professional career began with her appointment as principal flute of the North Carolina Symphony, after which she played with the Cleveland Orchestra for 25 years.

Since becoming a freelancer in 2006, Ms. Aarons performs regularly with the Philadelphia Orchestra, sometimes for extended periods. Other orchestral activities have included appearances as guest principal flute with the Metropolitan Opera, the Minnesota Orchestra, the Milwaukee Symphony, the Mostly Mozart Festival, the San Diego Symphony and the Baltimore Symphony. In the summers she serves as artist/faculty of the Aspen Music Festival.

Ms. Aarons has been featured as soloist with the Cleveland Orchestra, Aspen Chamber Symphony, North Carolina Symphony, and Ohio Chamber Orchestra and is a regular guest artist at Rancho la Puerta in Mexico.

Among her teaching credits are the Cleveland Institute of Music, Eastman School of Music, Duke University, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, and Oberlin College. She was Filene Visiting-Artist-in-Residence at Skidmore College and taught and performed at the Shanghai Conservatory.

In 2003 Ms. Aarons gave the Aspen Music Festival premiere of the Flute Concerto by Christopher Rouse. Her CD, The History of the Tango, is recorded on the Azica label.
